FRAULEIN (Das Fräulein)

Written & Directed by:
Andrea Štaka

Ruža left Serbia for Switzerland full of hope for a better life. Thirty years later she has only one passion left: money. Mila, Ruža's long-time employee, is different. She has lived in Switzerland with her family for decades, working hard with the aim of fulfilling her dream of owning a home back in Croatia. Ruža and Mila's daily lives are a succession of repetitive activities until twenty-something Ana arrives from Sarajevo and upsets their painstakingly organized world. FRAULEIN, an intimate portrait of three strong-minded women and the relationships that develop between them, explores the various consequences of the migration of people across national, cultural, and religious boundaries.

Presented by the Consulate General of Switzerland in Chicago, the Chicago Cultural Center, & Cinema/Chicago.
